How i met Mr Andy and Miss Violet ?

How i met Mr Andy is at the SI1M Program, UMS. And when i reached Johor Bahru, Mr Andy introduce Miss Violet for the first time and i was awe with their kindness to share and guide us along the way.

My Hope

When i first joined this intensive training, i hope to learn more about insurance and the concepts. At first, i have zero knowledge about insurance and was hoping to gain alot at it. After get into this training, i understand how important insurance is not only for me but all of us. With what i have gained, i want to educate people as much as i can to open their mind about insurance. I also can see how this career as a great one to grab. I hope to improve my life and have a better future.

What I did during the internship period?

Get to know about insurance, the products, the concepts and SG Group.

Learn how to use the Esubmission, the GEL SIS, Quotation and learn how to fact find customer before we get to disturb our client.

Attend the morning meeting with the seniors how they handle objection and weekly meeting to listen their sharing about thier cases.

Learn also how to recruit new agent.

Joined the cash flow game which gives me a big impact on how important insurance is in our life.

Sight seeing to give us motivation and exposure in the real world

Thank you for showing me this path...

Firstly, i would like to thank Mr. Andy and Miss Violet for this big opportunity to let me know this path because it's been an amazing experience, knowledge, guidance and also sharing about this training. And thank you also for providing us a comfortable hospitality and countless effort to make this 1 month training a success.

I honestly feel enjoyed and love this training, because it was filled with positive vibes where people are keen to learn things and the people there are very energetic and it was a good influence for me.
